Poisoned Ale Sent to Dr. Wilson Through Philadelphia Express Company.

SEARCH BEING MADE FOR MAN UNDER SUSPICION.

Philadelpnia, July 2.-The first definite information regarding the movements of the persons supposed to have been responsible for the poisoning of Dr. William H. Wilson here last Friday was made public tonight when it was stated that the bottle of ale containing poison which Wilson drank was delivered to his residence from the office of the Philadelphia local express to the Philadelphia local express for the last twelve years held up to recompany. The package was received at the express office by Fred Buckman, who describes the man who brought the package there as about 25 years old, smooth shaven, dark complexion and well dressed. The package was large enough to have contained a pint bottle. It was apparently a bottle enclosed in a regular pasteboard carton. On the side was Dr. Wilson's name and address. The man paid in advance for the delivery of the package.

Buckman says that his recollection is "I certainly think that the convention should adopt a resolution in honor of Mr. Cleveland and the one prepared by Judge Parker seems to me to be entirely proper and to fill the bill completely." that when the delivery man returned from his trip he turned in a receipt for the package signed "Mrs. Wilson."

At the Gray headquarters, Josiah Marvel said that Mr. Cleveland was a world character and that his memory should this would be disgraceful and injure the party in the eyes of the country. It was therefore determined to take immediate steps toward heading off any such possibility, and, at the instance of Roger C. The Bryan people having possession of the temporary organization, decided that the Cleveland resolution shall be presented to the convention by a man who will be recognized by Temporary Chairman Bell immediately after the conclusion of his speech. "The attempt to drag the dead body of Grover Cleveland from its new made grave into the tumuit of a national convention will deceive no one. An invasion of the grief of the nobie lady who weeps amid the silence and the solitude of the granite hills, a blow at party concord, it is the act of a shameless hypocrite. Nor was ever a professional ghoul inspired by a more mercenary spirit, because the sole aim and end of the Murphy-Connors crowd, aided by Judge Parker, is the perpetuation of the ascendancy of the Belmont-Ryan combination to which Democracy owes its last ignominibus and well-deserved defeat. It was Behaont-Ryan money that financed Judge Parker's campaign for the nomination in 1904. It was Belmont-Ryan money that nominated him and it was the Belmont-Ryan tag that made an anti-trust movement under such a brand absurd and impossible.

R. M. Johnson, the Texas member of the committee on convention arrangements, said today:

"If that Parker resolution is introduced in the convention it will raise all sorts of a row. The friends of Mr. Bryan do not propose, under the guise of a resolution honoring Grover Cleveland. Mr. Bryan shall be attacked and his policies for the last twelve years held up to rebuke."

Illinois Man Writes Letter to William J. Bryan.

Denver, July 2.—The friends of Govern-or Johnson of Minnesota have come into possession of a letter written to the del-egates to the Democratic convention by egates to the Democratic convention by Samuel H. Wood of Evanston, Ill., in which he incloses a copy of a letter written by himself to Mr. Bryan urging Mr. Bryan to withdraw from the race as a candidate for president and permit the convention to make a selection of a presidential candidate without reference to instructions. Mr. Wood explains that the letter to Mr. Bryan was written with the letter to Mr. Bryan was written with the latter's consent, obtained after a personal interview, in which he fully presented his interview, in which he fully presented his views to the Nebraska leader.

In his letter to delegates Mr. Wood urged them to get together and prepare a petition to Bryan asking him to release them from their instructions and thus permit the convention to become a party counsel and leave the delegates free to choose a candidate of their liking. He points out that Mr. Bryan has twice been an unsuccessful candidate and urges that the party should not for a third time assume the responsibility for his candidacy. In the letter to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Wood declares that a majority of the delegates who have been instructed to vote for him hold the opinion that he cannot possibly be elected. There is no indication of any movement looking to a conference such as Mr. Wood suggests.

QUESTION OF CONTESTS.

National Committee Will Begin Hearings on Monday.

Denver. July 2.—The number of contests before the national Democratic committee for representation as delegates on the temporary roll call in the national Democratic convention was increased today from 50 to 54. Today's mail brought notices of contests in the 9th and 19th Ohio districts. In each of these cases the factions are claiming that they represent the "regular" organization and are therefore entitled to seats as delegates.

The national committee will begin hearing all contests on Monday morning. The situation, with respect to the Idaho delegates, is expected to develop a bitter fight in which the Mormon question will play a leading part. Former Senators Dubois and Heitfeldt will base their claim for recognition of their delegation upon the plea that the convention which elected the other faction was dominated by Mormons and was not a representative Democratic body.

mons and was not a representative Democratic body.

The headquarters of the committee was the scene of much activity today. Secretary Woodson and Assistant Secretary Edwin Sefton were kept busy preparing contested cases for the committee. They were beseiged by a steady stream of visitors, most of whom called to file papers for the consideration of the committee in determining the several contests.

GUFF FROM GUFFEY.

Pennsylvania Man in Denver With the Short Enders.

Denver, July 2.—Colonel James H. Guffey, the well-known Democratic leader in Pennsylvania, arrived late today.
When asked for an expression of his opinion as to candidate and the platform, Mr. Guffey said: "It is a question of availability with me. The Democratic party ought to, and can win the coming election if the convention, in its wisdom, will make a platform commensurate with true Democracy, and name a ticket in harmony therewith. The country is tired of agitation; tired of unrest; and, if it wants anything, it wants stability, quietness and the return of prosperity.

it wants stability, quietness and the return of prosperity.

"Regard for fundamental principles, with the hope of success, is the objective in the field of politics, and to arouse this the party should have new faces and new conditions. It has neither time nor desire to discuss events of the past; it is with the future it must reckon, and patriotism, not selfishness, should prevail.

"I understand," said Colonel Guffey, "that the sentiment here is that Bryan is going to be nominated. It must be remembered, however, that there has been nobody here to speak of except Bryan men, and naturally, Bryan sentiment would prevail under such circumstances. There are a lot of uninstructed delegates in the convention, you must remember, and if Bryan is nominated, it will only be after a fight."

Johnson, but for what purpose the managers of the Johnson campaign have no idea. Mr. O'Brien will leave St. Paul for Denver tomorrow, and has wired the Johnson headquarters in this city that he has been asked by Mr. Bryan to stop off for a short time. It is generally supposed by the Johnson men that Mr. Bryan wishes to talk over the vice presidential situation. That at least is the only ground they can imagine for the request ground they can imagine for the request of Mr. Bryan.
